REDI... SET... WATCH:

WORD AROUND THE CITY

REDI to Thank Rockville Businesses!

Love is in the air!

And because we LOVE our Rockville businesses, REDI is gearing up for Rockville Business Appreciation Week coming in March.

It’s that special week, once a year, where the REDI Staff and Board of Directors, the Mayor & Council, City staff, as well as Rockville Chamber Board members visit some of our City’s businesses and thank them for all they contribute to our community and local economy.

Rockville is a great place to live and a great place to work. With all we have going for us, it’s important to give credit where credit is due.

Are you or do you own a business or company inside the Rockville City limits?
Would you like a personal “thank you” for your business and an opportunity to find out what more the City and REDI can do for you?

If so, click here to register for a visit from several City “ambassadors” and a chance to let us know what you’re doing, how you’re doing and how we can help you get to the next level.

Rockville Business Appreciation Week is March 10-14 with a celebratory breakfast on Friday, March 21 for all participants.

Join us as we appreciate and celebrate our Rockville businesses.

Check out the Clip of the Month for more reasons to sign up from our Executive Director, Laurie Boyer!
