REDI... SET... WATCH:

It's StartRight! Time Again!

REDI For You!

May Wise Words

"Whenever you see a successful business, someone once made a courageous decision."
-Peter Drucker, Management Consultant, Educator, and Author

UPCOMING EVENTS

MAY 6  MAY 12  MAY 14  MAY 21

WORD AROUND THE CITY

REDI to Bring Brokers Together

Rockville Economic Development, Inc. (REDI) is hosting an exclusive Commercial Broker B2B Industry Event on Wednesday, May 14 at the Glenview Mansion.

The free event is from 8:00 - 10:30 AM and includes a continental breakfast and mini trade show.

At this event, you can look forward to:

- Meeting other commercial brokers representing local sites and projects.
- Presentation from City of Rockville Department of Community Planning and Development Services.
- Mini trade show featuring local vendors/businesses in related industries (engineers, architects, etc.).
- Learning about marketing resources and tools from REDI to help you attract tenants.

Registration is required to attend. If you would like to attend, click REDI Commercial Broker Breakfast 2014 by Friday, May 9, 2014 to register.

LATEST ROCKVILLE NEWS

MWBC Awarded for Making a Difference

Congratulations to REDI's own Maryland Women's Business Center for their receipt of the 5th Annual Non-Profit Village "Making a Difference" Award this year in the small nonprofit category.

The award was presented at a breakfast on May 1st with all of the awards given designed to celebrate an individual, a small and large nonprofit and a business whose standard of excellence helps to build and sustain a vibrant, community-serving nonprofit sector.

In addition to MWBC/REDI, the awards recipients included Dr. Usa Bunnag (Individual), Bethesda Magazine (Business) and Rockville’s Adventure Theatre (Large Nonprofit).

Hometown Holidays On Its Way

While it may seem that we just celebrated the New Year, it really is almost Memorial Day—and that means Rockville’s Hometown Holidays celebration in the Town Center!

Enjoy 3 days of entertainment, amusement, great food and all your favorite shops with local new and old friends.

Free concerts, kids activities, and the Taste of Rockville all commencing on Saturday, May 24 at 2pm through Sunday, the 25th. The Memorial Day Parade will be held Monday, May 26 beginning at 9 a.m. Don’t miss a minute of it!

For more information and the music and food vendor line up click here.

Rockville Getting Bike Friendlier

It’s not just trendy, it’s smart—biking to work. And May seems to be ALL about Biking to Work. It starts on May 16th with Bike to Work Day sponsored by Commuter Connections and the Washington Area Bicyclist Association. Rockville has 3 pitstops for the celebration and more information can be found here.

But the "biking fever" doesn't end there. Wednesday, May 21 is the Bike Friendly Business Workshop, hosted by the City of Rockville, the Rockville Chamber of Commerce, Bike Maryland and the JBG Companies.

Find out how your business can improve its bottom line and have healthier, happier and more productive employees through biking as well as how to Create a Green Business. Here’s more information and you can register for this event here.