

Rockville Works for me

"MMG chose Rockville for its headquarters because of the city's convenient access to NIH's main campus and clinics. We have stayed because of the high concentration of biotech companies and access to talent in Montgomery County."

MMG is a full-service clinical trial patient recruitment company celebrating its 30th anniversary. MMG has accelerated recruitment in more than 1,000 clinical research programs across 70 countries and 15 therapeutic areas. As part of Omnicom Health Group, the world's largest health communications network, we leverage insights from more than 3,200 health communicators.
